Policy Document for Scholarships/Freeships

The management of TKR Educational society has announced scholarships for students of TKR College of Engineering and Technology as cause of service.

The decision to provide scholarships or fee waivers to students who have a proven record of accomplishment in sports. In addition, to the students who hail from poor financial background and cannot effort to pay tuition fees.

Each academic year, the college will publicize the scholarship opportunity widely among the students and invite applications. The received applications will be carefully reviewed by a committee led by the Physical Director and endorsed by the Principal. The list of selected students will be displayed on the notice boards for everyone's information. Once the management approves the scholarships, the finance department and the relevant branch will be informed accordingly.
